

Peregrine wins Best Marketing and Communications Agency award for the tenth consecutive year

Peregrine Communications has been named as the Best Marketing and Communications Agency for the tenth consecutive year at the HFM European Hedge Fund Services Awards.

This is the third award for the agency so far this year, following wins at the CTA Intelligence US Services Awards and the Hedge Fund Journal Awards. Since its launch in 2003, Peregrine has won over 30 industry awards for its work with the hedge fund and wider asset management industry.

Anthony Payne, CEO of Peregrine, said: “We’re thrilled to have been named Best Marketing and Communications Agency at the HFM European Hedge Fund Services Awards for the tenth time. In today’s ultra-competitive market, being able to effectively communicate your investment edge is essential if you’re going to succeed. These awards are a recognition of our commitment to help our clients gain a competitive advantage through integrated marketing communications that are focused on driving business value.”

Peregrine has worked with more than 100 hedge fund clients including Acadian Asset Management, Aurora Investment Management, Brevan Howard, Cantab Capital Partners, Duet Group, Permal Group, K2 Advisors, David Warren, Finisterre Capital, Glen Point Capital, Incapture Investments, Lutetia Capital, Odey Asset Management, Omni Partners, Penso Advisors, Pine River Capital Management, Prophecy Asset Management, GAMMA Capital Management, PVE Capital, Orchard Asset Management, RAM Active, Selwood Asset Management, SkyBridge Capital, Quest Partners and Campbell & Co.

